Message from
UFI’s Managing Director

Dear Member, Dear Reader,

Yes, UFI’s Summer Seminar will take place as planned in Zagreb, Croatia, the 14, 15 and 16 of this coming June! So be certain to put this event into your agenda now!

The recent withdrawal from the exhibition scene by XM has led many of you to wonder if our UFI Summer Seminar would go-ahead as planned. Well rest assured – it most definitely is on target!

Though UFI will not be taking over XM’s former activities, we will be reclaiming our famed UFI Summer Seminar and managing it on an in-house basis this year. The end of our partnership with XM has been accomplished in full cooperation with the XM staff and advisory board. Under the guidance of XM’s new management, XM’s staff has worked closely with your UFI team to make the turnover of the Summer Seminar a smooth one.

Zagreb Fair, a UFI founding member and host of this year’s UFI Summer Seminar, the Zagreb Tourist Board, the City of Zagreb, Croatia Airlines and Generalturist will be working closely with us to ensure that you received one of the finest welcome’s ever at a UFI Summer Seminar.

And as to the programme, it will definitely meet your expectations.

Håkan Gershagen, who has successfully animated a number of UFI and XM seminars in the past, will once again lead us as we examine topics of interest to us all. He is working closely with our UFI HQ staff as we finalise the details of this year’s programme.

On this occasion we will also be holding several UFI internal meetings reserved for UFI members only, including UFI’s Executive Committee and Board, and UFI’s Statistics and Associations Committee meetings.

The UFI Summer Seminar itself is once again open to both members and non-members from throughout our fairs and exhibitions industry.

So keep your eyes open for emailed programme and registration information. And we’ll be on the lookout for you at the 2004 UFI Summer Seminar!

You will shortly be receiving the full 2004 UFI Summer Seminar programme and registration options. Indeed, some of you are so enthusiastic that we have already received unsolicited registration requests from quite a few of you.

Oh, and yet another piece of good news! The participation fee for the 2004 UFI Summer Seminar will go down – just as you requested! And if several of you come from the same organisation, even further reductions are available. So encourage your colleagues to join us at our 2004 UFI Summer Seminar in Zagreb.

UFI Board Meeting
Accepts New Members and Approves New Shows

New UFI Policy Speeds Up Administration

During the 70th UFI Congress in Cairo, UFI’s General Assembly approved new statutes which allow new members and events meeting UFI criteria and standards to be admitted by agreement of the Board.

Presiding at his first UFI Board meeting as President, Ruud van Ingen happily implemented these new measures permitting a record number of 18 organisations to join our truly global association of the international marketing industry. (A list of the new UFI Members can be found on Page 7.) In addition, nine exhibitions have qualified as new UFI Approved Events.

These new members will now be able to fully profit from all UFI activities and services without having to wait until our next General Assembly!

For the first time UFI also admitted a new category of members: “Would-be members”. These are organisations whose credentials appear likely to meet all UFI criteria in the near future, for example a fairground under construction. They are permitted to participate in UFI activities but may not vote or use the UFI logos.

After quite a bit of general housekeeping (budget review, activity update, review of the UFI Committee structure, and review of the geographic distribution of Board seats) the Board debated at length on the question of international auditing of exhibition statistics. While there is no doubt that this is key to our “justifying” our position as a key player in any marketing mix, the variety of definitions and international criteria currently applied around the world is significant. For this reason UFI is taking the lead to coordinate efforts globally on this key issue.

Among the agenda items discussed by the Board was the question of a UFI Code of Ethics. The Board has approved a first draft of this important document which will be presented to the General Assembly for approval in Bangkok. There seems to be general agreement among UFI’s Board members that this will be an important step forward in harmonising a common framework for the management of sector’s business ethics in the future.

The Board wrapped up this session with a favorable review of the the kind invitation of the China Association of Exhibition Centres (CAEC), supported by the China Council for the Promotion of International Trade and the Beijing Municipal Government to host the UFI Annual Congress in Beijing in 2006. The final decision on this invitation will be made by the General Assembly in Bangkok.
Upcoming UFI Focus Meetings

Formerly Known as “UFI Mini-Seminars”, UFI Focus Meetings Welcome All UFI Members

Vienna and Utrecht Sessions Open their Doors

It appears that the decision to open the doors of UFI thematic meetings beyond the limits of UFI Committee members is certain to lead to success.

Two UFI Focus Meetings are currently open for registration:

Registration is enthusiastic in both cases. Perhaps that has something to do with the timeliness of the topics?

In each case, additional information and registration is available on the UFI website at www.ufi.org in the members section. If you need additional info, please contact briac@ufi.org.

Remember all UFI members are now invited to participate in these Focus Meetings. Attend UFI Focus Meetings if you want to truly benefit from your UFI membership!

Join us and spend the day exchanging professional information and contacts with colleagues from around the world who share your same interests.

UFI European Chapter

Reviews State of the Industry
In Southern Europe

Presentations by UFI members from Fondazione Fiera Milano, Fira de Barcelona, AGECO Athens and Parque de Exposiçoes de Braga kicked off the review among the 33 participants. Gathered in Milan on March 5, the group followed these national reviews with presentations of a different nature.

Prof. Francesca Golfetto of the Trade Fairs Observatory CERMES-BOCCONI in Milan and Dr. Peter Neven of AUMA presented a variety of educational programmes available to those interested in the trade fair industry. There was common agreement that globalisation demands linguistic competence at all levels and that this should be one of the prime elements of any educational programme. As Dr. Neven pointed out, “trade fair and congress organisers as customer-oriented communication service providers, will require communicative competence.” These presentations are now available online (www.ufi.org) to all UFI members.

All of these presentations are now available on line (www.ufi.org) to all UFI members.

2004 UFI Summer Seminar
Off to Zagreb We Go!

The 2004 UFI Summer Seminar is fast approaching, so be certain to keep the dates 14-16 June free to attend in Zagreb.

Your UFI Headquarters staff is working on a programme which is certain to bring new marketing ideas to us all. From “How to revitalize a 100 Year Old Consumer Show” to “How to successfully Enter Competitive New Markets” and “Organisers and Venue Operators – Can this Ever be a Win-Win Relationship?” the conference is certain to provide innovative new ideas and information for you to apply to your own exhibition situation.

The complete programme will be online shortly so get ready to reserve your room at the Hotel Opera in Zagreb and to register online. We’ll also be organising a golf tournament for all of you avid golfers so get those irons ready.

If you have any questions, send an email to briac@ufi.org that is certain to have all the answers.

UFI Member News

UFI Members Peter Sutton, President and CEO of CMP Asia and Michael Duck also from CMP Asia but in his capacity as Chairman of UFI’s Asia Pacific Chapter have been selected as two of the Top Ten Distinguished Entrepreneurs in the China Exhibition Industry Award 2003 Results. Congratulations to them both!

You heard it in UFI Info. Bilbao Exhibition Centre (BEC) is the new name for the Feria International de Bilbao, Spain.
UFI Competition Events

Participate Now in the UFI Marketing Award Competition and the International Poster Competition!

UFI currently has two well known international competition events underway. Have you sent in your entries?

For the 2004 UFI Marketing Award we’ve already received entries from the Middle East, Europe, Asia and South America! The theme this year is “best Press and Media Relations Programme” and the winner will be invited to present his programme to the entire UFI Summer Seminar audience in Zagreb in June.

If you have any questions about this event, please contact briac@ufi.org or check out the registration information in the Members’ area of the UFI website.

The second international competition currently underway is the 8th International Poster Competition. Organised by UFI and International Fair Plovdiv, this competition has earned international recognition among the advertising industry. You can find information related to this competition on our website. This year we’ve added a new category for poster entries. If you’ve created any posters which promote our industry in general please participate in this event now! The Grand Prize winner will receive his trophy before his peers at the UFI Annual Congress in Bangkok in November.

For further information on the poster competition please check out the UFI website or contact lili@ufi.org

UFI Website Updates

Do It Yourself!

www.ufi.org is available to all internet users for information and statistics on the trade show and exhibition sector. The site also provides free information and statistics regarding each UFI Member. For example if you click on our home page under “UFi Members” you will find the name of our member organisations and exhibition centres, and their UFI approved events.

As a UFI member you can directly update all data regarding your company, UFI approved events and exhibition centres at any time. On the UFI website in the “Members’ Area” section reserved for UFI members only, you can access this area with the login and password of your company:

The link “Update your data” will allow you to update all the following information:

1-Information regarding UFI member organisations: Data such as Company Name, address, telephone, fax, e-mails and websites
2-Information regarding exhibition centres: General data such as gross rentable exhibition area, distances from the city centre, the airport, restaurants, services and annual statistics data such as the number of exhibitions, number of exhibitors, visitors.
3-Information regarding UFI Approved Events: General data such as event title, 5 business sectors, frequency, email, website and annual statistics data such as location, dates, net rented space, number of exhibitors, visitors.
4-Who’s Who: You can update information regarding the online Who’s Who (add, modify, or delete a person from your organisation). In addition you can add colour or black and white photos for each person listed, with the added possibility to upload pictures for each member.

As your UFI Headquarters, we use this information to prepare the UFI Annual Directory, to provide general statistics to the media and to calculate the UFI annual subscription fees, so feel free to update this data frequently.

In this “Member’s Area” you will also find all the documents regarding UFI events and programmes, the Annual Congress, Seminars, and Focus Meetings and other meeting info including registration form, programmes, and speakers’ presentations.
